

Please consider this formal notification that I am against the use of cell phones during commercial airline flights. I support the use of phones within a commercial plane while on the ground to provide status updates regarding the flights as required, however, other use during a flight may be considered offensive. there may be increased risk of disagreements and altercations between passengers that could impact the safety of all passengers.